

The Game Exchange Networks is owned and organized by Camp Concepts, Inc. Camp Concepts designs and administrates summer camp programs for children ages 2-14 including: Big Oak Day Camp, Little Buds Day Camp and Expressions Day Camp (a program specifically designed for campers who need greater social skill strengthening in their summer camp program). Camp Concepts Inc. runs their programs from the campus of St. John's The Evangelist at 752 Big Oak Rd, Yardley, PA. 19067. The camp is not affiliated with the church.

President and CEO, Steve Haines, taught PE for 20 years at a private school in Newtown, PA. He started the Game Exchange Network as a practical and fun way to bring PE and camp professionals together to exchange ideas and games for the benefit of children. For more than 25 years, the Game Exchange has connected teachers in a fun and practical professional development workshop.
